"Wha's like us? Damn few and they're a' deid"

Off along the coastline and back through the sugar cane inland to form a loop.

"Here's to the Hares
They're True Blue
They are Hashers
Through & Through Never Get to
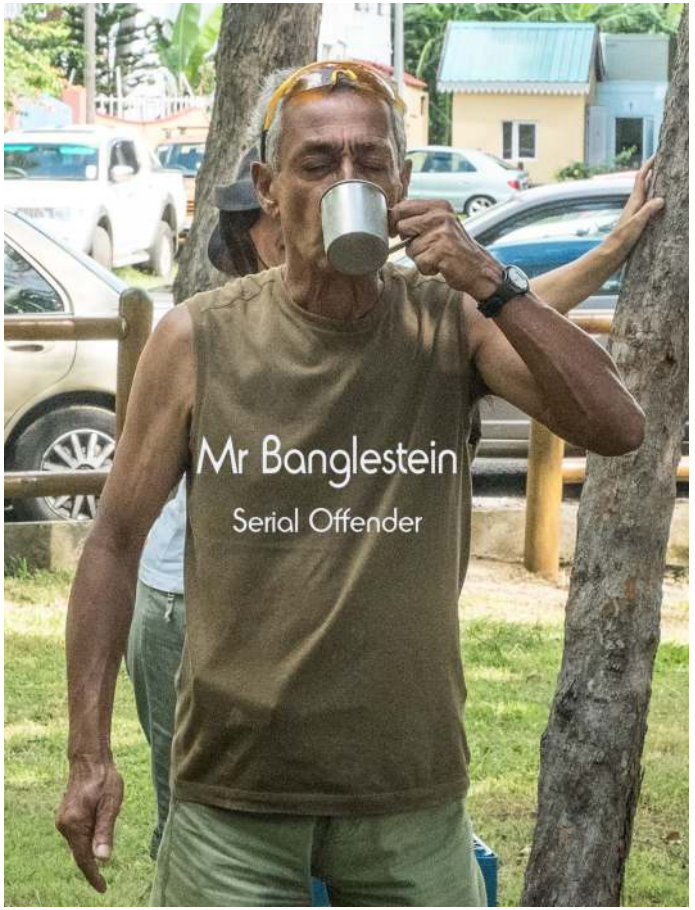
Heaven in a Long
Long Way....."

Top Left The Hares were congratulated on their excellent trail. Down-Downs for the three Hares.

Above First Timer: Steve Wray from Canada

Left Second Timer: Julian Kent from UK. (Julian has actually been more than once before but always managed to escape before the Circle! - But not this time– Down Down for Julian).

Returners Lord and Lady Russell were welcomed back from their travels in New Zealand.



The Down-Downs began .....
Claude Constantin - once again Mr Banglestein - last to pay!
Followed by Dodo Cop, Strong On and Shakesbeer

I have walked that long road to freedom. I have tried not to falter; I have made missteps along the way. But I have discovered the secret that after climbing a great hill, one only finds that there are many more hills to climb. I have taken a moment here to rest, to steal a view of the glorious vista that surrounds me, to look back on the distance I have come. But I can only rest for a moment, for with freedom comes responsibilities, and I dare not linger, for my long walk is not ended.

Nelson Mandela

Hot Pants received a Down Down for looking like and representing Nelson Madela for a day.

Amazing Grace How Sweet Thou Art .....

The Cow Bell – nowhere to be seen! Marlow forgot to bring it and his father Mike forgot to remind him to bring it – Down Downs for father and son!
Marlow will have to wear it next Hash!

The Trail Master (Harry – Go – ucky) was congratulated for the organisation of the next runs taking us till the end of July – well done Harry.

Shakesbeer gave us a wonderful rendering of "Amazing Grace" after which our RA quized us on the author of the song. As usual nobody knew the answer which was Barrett Strong!

Mike was having some difficulty with the melodies of our Hash Songs – he so wanted to be in – une! Shakesbeer sang our new Mauritius Hash song – with everyone joining in.

This was followed by the entire Hash singing and performing Swing Low Sweet Chariot (The Hash version!) followed by requests for Flower of Scotland (after the Scots poll – oops don't mention politics!), the German National anthem and of course the Mauritian one to finish our songs – what a Patriotic Day!

Alison and Harry – Go – ucky asked interested parties to register for the "Pub Crawl" to be endured on Saturday 30 May.
