Mahebourg

Join us every second Sunday at 10.00 for a wonderful Hash experience—a good run, or walk followed by good humour and good company.

The On...On... was Situated Under a Large Banyan Tree on the Waterfront of Mahebourg on a Great Hashing Day!

On...On...

There will be Two Trails - a Runners Trail and a Shorter Walkers Trail. On...On...

We "Circle Up" Under Our Banyan Tree and Our GM who is also Today's Hare Explains the Trail for Runners and for Walkers. On....On....

The Runners Head Off Initially Along the Coastline Past the Petanque Players!!!

The Walkers make their way into the Town of Mahebourg!!

Simple But Stylish!!

Too Early for a Hash Halt!!

Hashing - Hand-In-Hand!!! On...On...

A Branch of Clinique Darné?

LE LAVOIR

These rectangular stones on the banks of Rivière La Chaux provide washing facilities to local washerwomen for the cleaning of the uniforms and other outfits of french soldiers posted in the batteries at Ile de la Passe, Ile aux Fouquets, Pointe des Régates, Pointe Jérôme and Pointe de la Colonie.

The washhouse is still being used and is part of our national heritage.
